

13 September 2021

To our lovely pupils,

Here is a gift for you to mark Roald Dahl Day 2021. It is also a 'Welcome Back' gift to mark the start of the year. We hope you love your tote bag and book!

We hope you enjoy delving into the world of Roald Dahl (Quentin Blake for Year 1) and let your imaginations go free as you read and enjoy them. If your book is a little tricky for you to read independently just yet, then why not ask an adult at home to read it aloud to you?

We look forward to hearing all about the stories you have read when you have finished them and would love to see your video book reviews on SEESAW. As you know reading is so important and we want you to enjoy every moment of your reading, discover new worlds as you explore new authors and genres and catch the reading bug!

Here's to a fantastic year of reading ahead!

Best wishes,

The Larkswood Team
